

An Order for Compline Sept 15

Introduction to Compline:

"The offering of prayer late in the evening, by laity, religious orders or clergy, often called Compline, has sometimes been described as the 'goodnight prayer of the Church'. It rounds off the day and prepares us for a quiet night. As the psalmist wrote:

I lie down in peace and take rest my rest for it is in God alone that I dwell unafraid.

Night Prayer derives its content from the wisdom of the centuries in Scripture and above all in the psalms, but also from contemporary Christian experience of God. It celebrates the awareness that each of us who tries to pray is a part of the human whole. So we are taken over the threshold from daytime, not in a mood of self-centered spirituality, but as representatives of humanity, acknowledging our creaturehood before God." (Anglican Church of New Zealand, Night Prayer, p 167)

(Directions for Compline over ZOOM:

As we are worshipping together over Zoom, we ask that participants stay muted until asked to unmute. A representative of the group will read the congregational responses, and another will assist with the readings.)

God grant us a peaceful night and a perfect end. Amen. (ANZPB, Night Prayer, pp 167-186)

The angels of God guard us through the night, and quiet the powers of darkness.

The Spirit of God be our guide to lead us to peace and to glory.

It is but lost labor that we haste to rise up early,
and so late take rest, and eat the bread of anxiety.
For those beloved of God are given gifts even while they sleep.

Silence

My siblings in Christ,
our help is in the name of the eternal God,
who is making the heavens and the earth.

Dear God,
thank you for all that is good,
for our creation and for our humanity,
for the stewardship you have given us of this planet earth,

for the gifts of life and of one another,
for your love which is unbounded and eternal.

O thou, most holy and beloved,
our Companion, our Guide upon the way,
our bright evening star.

We repent the wrongs we have done:

We have wounded your love.
O God, heal us.

We stumble in the darkness.
Light of the world transfigure us.

We forget that we are your home.
Spirit of God, dwell in us.

Eternal Spirit, living God,
in whom we live and move and have our being,
all that we are, have been, and shall be is known to you, to the very secret of our hearts and all that rises to trouble us.
Living flame burn into us,
cleansing wind, blow through us,
fountain of water, well up within us,
that we may love and praise in deed and in truth.

Invocation

Eternal Spirit, flow through our being and open our lips, that our mouths may proclaim your praise.
Let us worship the God of love.
Alleluia, alleluia.

First Reading: Job 12:7-10

But ask the animals, and they will teach you;
the birds of the air, and they will tell you;
ask the plants of the earth, and they will teach you;
and the fish of the sea will declare to you.
Who among all these does not know that the hand of the Lord has done this?
In his hand is the life of every living thing and the breath of every human being.

Psalm or Canticle: Psalm 16

O God, I give you thanks for the wisdom of your counsel, even at night you have instructed my heart.

I have set your face always before me,
you are at my right hand and I shall not fall.

Therefore my heart is glad and my spirit rejoices,
my flesh also shall rest secure.

For you will not give me over to the power of death,
nor let your faithful one see the Pit.

In your presence is the fulness of joy,
and from your right hand flow delights for evermore.

Second Reading:

The Swan, by Mary Oliver (From The Paris Review # 124, Fall, 1992)

Did you too see it,
drifting, all night,
on the black river?
Did you see it in the morning,
rising into the silvery air -
An armful of white blossoms,
A perfect commotion of silk and linen
as it leaned into the bondage of its wings;
a snowbank,
a bank of lilies,
Biting the air with its black beak?
Did you hear it,
fluting and whistling
A shrill dark music - like the rain pelting the trees - like a waterfall
Knifing down the black ledges?
And did you see it, finally, just under the clouds -
A white cross
Streaming across the sky,
its feet
Like black leaves,
its wings
Like the stretching light of the river?
And did you feel it, in your heart,

*how it pertained to everything?
And have you too finally figured out what beauty is for?
And have you changed your life?*

The Prayers

(BCP 1979)

Into your hands, O God, I commend my spirit, for you have redeemed me, O God of truth and love.

Keep me, O God, as the apple of an eye;
hide me under the shadow of your wings.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Officiant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Officiant Lord, hear our prayer;
People And let our cry come to you.
Officiant Let us pray.

The Officiant then says one/more of the following Collects/Prayers

Be present, O merciful God, and protect us through the hours of this night, so that we who are wearied by the changes and chances of this life may rest in your eternal changelessness;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The following prayer may be added

Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ; give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for your love's sake. Amen.

Silence may be kept, and free intercessions and thanksgivings may be offered. Participants are encouraged to "unmute" and add intercessions and thanksgivings.

A Prayer for Night

(ANZPB)

Lord,
it is night.

The night is for stillness.
Let us be still in the presence of God.

It is night after a long day.
What has been done has been done;
what has not been done has not been done;
let it be.

The night is dark.
Let our fears of the darkness of the world and of our own lives rest in you.

The night is quiet.
Let the quietness of your peace enfold us,
all dear to us,
and all who have no peace.

The night heralds the dawn.
Let us look expectantly to a new day,
new joys,
new possibilities.

In your name we pray.
Amen.

Officiant Let us bless the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Officiant concludes

The almighty and merciful God: Creator, Christ, and Holy Spirit, bless us and keep us. Amen.
